NOTE ON CIVIC AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES IN THE STATE.

In October 1916, the idea that Civic & Social Activities should form a part of a complete scheme of Development Work for the State was first thought of, and a public - meeting was held at Mysore and a Committee formed to further the subjects, with H.H. the Yuvaraja as President. Draft rules and programme was prepared by the Under Secretary Efficiency Audit, who was also appointed the Organising Secretary for Civic and Social - work and periodical progress reports were being scrutinised by him.

A programme was fixed for the year 1917 and some preliminary work was done. The Committee continued as an independent private organisation, carrying on the work on their programme, collecting donations and subscriptions from the members and the people.

In June 1917, the Committee organised a Social Conference, towards the cost of - which, they prayed for a grant from Government. A sum of Rs.250 was sanctioned for the purpose.

In the Social Conference held in June 1917, the organisation was changed into an Association and the Head quarters, which was Bangalore, were transferred to Mysore.

The scope of the work was extended to the 100 units where local committees were - appointed to organise the movement throughout the State, and revised programmes were prepared and issued in October 1917.

the

In November 1917 the Association applied for an initial grant of Rs.5,000/- and a monthly grant of Rs.200/- for carrying on its work, and for the services of an officer of Government for placing the work on a satisfactory and permanent basis. These requests were sanctioned in Government Order dated 2nd March 1918, for a period of one year in the first instance.

The returns prescribed in para 5 of the order are being received regularly and scrutinised in the branch and submitted to the Dewan in important cases.

Rooms in the Padmalaya were first made available for the office of the Secretary. It was subsequently transferred to the Secretariat Clerks' Quarters, Mysore.

The constitution was again changed in December 1918 and a revised programme was prepared by the Secretary of the Association (Mr.M.Rama Rao) and the Efficiency Audit Officer and issued after approval by the Dewan and H.H. the Yuvaraja, the Patron of the Association.

The Head quarters of the Association were retransferred to Bangalore from ~~Mysore~~ 1st January 1919.

Mr. M. Rama Rao was recently on deputation to Poona, Bombay and Pandharpur to acquaint himself with the Civic and Social Activities there.

The term for which a Government Officer has been offered as Secretary of the Association expires on the 9th April 1919.

Mr. Rama Rao has recently been appointed Chief Officer, Mysore City Municipality, and a successor has to be appointed.

Chief Secretary).

Rao
19-2-19.

The progress achieved so far is as follows:-

1. Two City Committees, four District Committees and 47 Taluk Committees, Taluk Associations in the Taluks of the Districts of Bangalore, Shimoga, Kolar and Chitaldrug, 6 Taluks in Hassan, 6 Taluks in Mysore and 2 Taluks in Tumkur, and four Hobli Associations have been organised. The District Committees guide the work of the Taluk Committees and help in the formation of new centres. The actual work of propaganda is done by the Taluk Associations.

2. A Panchama Conference was arranged at Belur.

3. Several schemes for the Civic improvement of the people such as the establishment of an Art Gallery, formation of a Volunteer Corps, an Employment Bureau and Ratepayers' Associations were considered and proposals put forward.

C.656

4. Twelve pamphlets on matters of public interest were issued and distributed among the masses. A monthly journal in Kanada is also conducted by the Association.

5. Besides the above, the Central Association has helped the City and District Committees to start night schools, co-operative Societies and in arranging for fortnightly public lectures and starting of bhajane mandirams. A social census has also been set on foot in the cities of Mysore and Bangalore with a view to ascertain the several defects in the social condition, sanitation, etc., of the people and to suggest improvements.

The Chamundi Vihar,
Mysore,
Dated 7th April 1919.

My dear Mirza,

Mr. Rama Rao will continue to be the Secretary of the Civic and Social Progress Association till the end of June 1919 and then take up the duties of the Chief Officer of the Mysore City Municipality in accordance with Government Order No. 10640-M1. 3-18-23 dated 18th February 1919. But I think it will be in the interests of the Association to retain the services of Mr. Rama Rao as its Secretary for some time longer, with the permission of His Highness the Maharaja, as he has been in touch with the work of the Association for the past one year and as he has recently gained some experience of social work by visiting certain important centres of social activity. Mr. Srikanteswara Iyer can, I am sure, select some other officer for the Municipality.

I have already had a talk with you in regard to the above subject and you agreed to my proposal. This letter is written only to serve as a reminder.

If His Highness approves of the above proposal, necessary action may kindly be taken.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/ K.N.R. Wadiyar.

From the President, C.& S. Association.
No 1483 7.7.1919.
Requests that the services of Mr M Rama Rao may be lent to the Association for a minimum period of 3 years.

CONFIDENTIAL.

The Palace, Bangalore,

7th July 1919.

My dear Mr. Banerji,

I am sending herewith an extract from a note left by Mr. M. Rama Rao, Secretary, Civic and Social Progress Association, explaining the difficulties that he experiences in carrying on steady and continued work. As his term of office as Secretary to the Association is being extended by small periods, he finds it difficult to fix up the programme of work and show some tangible results. He thinks that the work of the Association is thereby greatly handicapped and that no perceptable progress could be shown unless a definite period is fixed. There is much force in this argument, I think.

The Central Committee of the Association have recorded a resolution in a meeting held in April last that in the present stage and condition of its activities, it will not be possible to carry on the work of the Association without the services of an officer lent by Government and suggested that a suitable officer may be deputed for a period

Extract from letter dated 27th June 1919 from Mr. M. Rama Rao, Secretary, Civic and Social Progress Association, Bangalore.

I left the order granting an extension of my services up to 2nd September in your office day before yesterday. I respectfully beg to represent that this short extension does no good to the work. In fact the work has suffered very greatly in the past six months on account of the uncertainty of the tenure. In December last, orders were issued transferring me to the Mysore Municipality as the Chief Officer. In April, it was ordered that I should continue as Secretary of the Association until further orders; and again now the Government order extends the term up to 2nd September. Under the circumstances, the undersigned cannot begin any work of a permanent nature as the intentions for the future are undisclosed.

The nature of the work of the Association is such that the results cannot be gauged easily and that no definite outcome can be shown as the fruit of our activities. If some tangible work has to be done, a prolonged period of steady plodding is necessary and unless a single officer continues as Secretary for three years (as per recommendation of the Association) the labour will be wasted. I therefore submit that the question of the permanence of the Secretary and of Government financial help may graciously be settled early.

The Dewan Sahib was pleased to assure the Representative Assembly that the Government Officer lent to the Association would be withdrawn as early as possible and it was probably in view of this assurance that such a short term of extension was given.

of three years. It is understood that two non-officials, viz., Mr. Gopalaswamy Iyer, Secretary, Bangalore City Committee, and Mr. Virupakshiah, Secretary, Mysore City Committee, are interesting themselves much in the work of the Association, and will in course of time be able to cope with the work satisfactorily. But it will be some time before any of these could take up this work without the aid of a Government officer.

In the above circumstances and in order to remove the difficulties that lie in the way of some tangible work being shown at the end of a definite period, it seems to me best to extend the services of Mr. Rama Rao who has already gained considerable experience in social work once for all up to the end of this official year. As a further incentive to good work, the Association may also be given an assurance that his services will be extended if sufficient progress is shown at the end of the period and if a suitable non-official to take up this work is not forthcoming by that time.

I shall

To,

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to Government, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No.3755-56 E.A.G. 219 dated 28th May 1919, directing that Mr. M. Rama Rao should continue as Secretary of the Civic & Social Progress Association for an additional period of six months from 2nd March 1919, I have the honour to state that this order extends the services of Mr. Rama Rao for only three months i,e, up to 2nd September 1919. Such short periods of extension do no good to the cause of the Association as the Secretary is unable to begin any work of importance in earnest or lay plans for the future while his continuance in the work is uncertain. As already stated in my letter No. C. 136 dated 11th April 1919, the work of the Association requires the deputation of an officer continuously for at least three years and the Association have therefore resolved that Government be again requested to depute Mr. Rama Rao for that period. I therefore request you to kindly move Government again in the matter.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M Rama Rao
for President.
